ATTEND THE WORLD'S LEADING ENGINEERED POLYOLEFINS FORUM

Join us OCTOBER 2-5, 2022, at SPE[®] TPO Global Automotive Polyolefins Conference.

Since 1999, this world leading conference on engineered polyolefins, has been at the forefront of highlighting advancements in rigid and flexible polyolefin materials (PPs and TPOs/TPEs), processes, and applications technologies as well as a growing range of thermoplastic elastomers (TPEs) and thermoplastic vulcanizates (TPVs). It also provides an excellent forum to network with key members of the entire automotive supply and OEM chain.

This conference features:

- > 70+ TECHNICAL PRESENTATIONS
- > LATEST in INNOVATIONS
- > KEYNOTE SPEAKERS
- > NETWORKING
- > EXHIBITS
- > SPONSORED RECEPTIONS

The SPE TPO Global Automotive Engineered Polyolefins Conference typically draws 900 attendees from 20 countries who are key automotive decision makers and authorities on applications, economics, and market trends.

This year's papers will include topics on:

Materials Development
Interior Applications & Laminating
Sustainable Materials & Parts
Innovations in Plastics for E/A Vehicles
